O-in-the-Snow

Mount Royal Park – February 5, 2012

The weather was great and there was plenty of snow on the ground to make running or walking enjoyable. Many participants brought snowshoes though most found that they could move just as well wearing only boots. There were a great many small, already-walked-on, trails that could be used.

Three courses were offered, employing a total of 19 control points. The Long course used all of them and was just under 6 km in length (probable best route). The two shorter courses used the same control points until about the half-way point where they cut back to the start-finish – which was at the Park chalet by the Lookout.

Francis Falardeau returned with the lead time on the Long – just over 38 minutes!
Thomas Schuessler was 2nd in 40:21 and Graham St. Laurent 3rd in 48:15.
Sarah Wilson posted the fastest time among women with a 1:02:20.

Thomas Davignon scored a win on the #2 (3.2 km) course, completing it in 0:44:40.
Jennifer O'Connell and Chris Cross, with two youngsters in tow, were 2nd in 1:07:02.
Catherine and Peter Measroch completed the Shortest (#1) course in 1:17:10.

The controls were put in place early on the Sunday morning by Bruce and Elaine. Later that afternoon Elaine picked up all of the 19 punches and tapes single-handedly. The map and course planning were done by myself. Gloria handled registration.

To everyone who came ... Thank You.
