Mount Royal Park — June 9, 2013

For days it had rained but on Sunday morning the skies cleared and the sun shone—especially (I'm sure) for us. The mountain was crowded with thousands of visitors but, perched on the hilltop above Smith House, we had a lovely green area all to ourselves. 80 people came to participate and enjoy the day.

Bruce Glen designed the four courses and, with Elaine, hung all of the 33 controls that were in use. The two advanced courses were provided with an additional new kind of O-challenge — a 750-meter-long stretch of Corridor Orienteering.

In this section most of the features had been removed from the map leaving an inch-wide strip of white with only a few bits of the map showing. These bits formed 'the route' that provided Orienteers with sufficient detail to locate the 3 controls that were placed along the way. Most of the Course 3 and 4 runners managed the section fairly well.

The #4 LONG ADVANCED course, including the corridor section, had the most participants — 21 starts.

Francis Falardeau, appearing in great form, completed the 7.5 km, 21-controls, in 0:49:31. Andreas Rutkauskas placed 2nd in 1:03:00 and Jake Brennan was 3rd in 1:07:11. Top female, finishing in 1:14:36, was Nadine Cybulski. Jessica Auer was a mere 68 seconds behind her.

The #3 SHORT ADVANCED was 4.1 km and had 14 starts. Returning with the best time was Ciprian Coman in 0:48:06. Christian Reid and Canberk Ozdemir finished 2nd and 3rd.

Course #2, the 3.3 km INTERMEDIATE was led by the 3-person team of Bracher, Matz and Gstrein in 0:45:02. Team Polotskii and Pirvulescu was 2nd in 1:06:37 and Joanna & Alex Eyquem carrying one-year old Jasper, was 3rd in 1:09:01.

The #1 EASIEST course was 2.3 km and had two fast finishers. Camille Reid covered the 16 controls in just 0:31:03, edging the Wen Cui Yang family by the tiny margin of 39 seconds. There were 10 'starts' on this course.

Assisting Bruce and Elaine were Lina and Elena, Camille, Leo, and of course, Gloria who managed registration, and later picked up a number of the flags.

Thanks to all who came.
