MEET REPORT: Centennial Park, DDO – September 15, 2013

Another great day of Orienteering — enjoyed under a mostly sunny sky. There were 81 ‘starts’ comprising a total of 144 participants. Included were 27 youngsters under 11 years who toured with their parents.

Dimitri Golovanov planned and set the controls for the four courses. Competitors on the #4 “Long” had first to complete the 13 controls of Course 3 (4.5 km), after which they received a second map that covered an additional loop of 15 controls and 4.4 km – a total of 8.9 km. (Distances measured by the best ‘possible’ route – avoiding uncrossables.)

Francis Falardeau finished all of that in just 0:55:57 to easily claim first place. Andreas Rutkauskas was 2nd in 1:09:06 and Sven Fellenberg 3rd in 1:16:05. Olga Rayda edged Jessica Auer by 3½ minutes to become ‘first lady’. Twenty-two runners did the course.

Thomas Kneubühler led the 32 participants who ran Course 3 with a fast 0:33:15. Ciprian Coman was 2nd in 0:37:40. Amongst the ladies, Kim Preston-Thomas was first (0:51:05).

On the #2 Intermediate course the team of Qing Liu and Wen Cui Yang finished the 3.6 km in 0:57:35 ... 50 seconds ahead of team Marie-Hélène Tremblay and Alain Gauthier.

The Novice #1 Course had 11 control points spread out over 2.1 km. Most of the families with youngsters went on this course and almost all completed it in under one hour. Leading the way were two family teams both with wee-sized enthusiasts. Maddy Fassina (4) urged-on her dad, Daniel, to eventually edge cousin Emily Skira (9) ...who had her mom and dad in tow (as well as 4 younger brothers and sisters!) to finish first ...by the teeny wee margin of 74 seconds. Congratulations to both ...and to all who joined us and did well.

Thanks to Dmitri who organized the event, did the timing and, later on, arranged the pick-up of the 40 controls that were in use. Special thanks to Gloria who handled registration and to Elaine who set up the String-O course that attracted over a dozen of the smallest folk there. Helping her with the set-up and take-down were Elena, Emma, Cian and Alyson.
